MAINE CARRIED BY REPUBLICANS

Signal Victory For the Reunited Forces—Curtis Defeat- ed For Re-Election

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—Maine Republicans, reinforced by returning Progressives, won a signal victory at the election today. They elected a governor, an auditor, two United States senators and four representatives in congress, wresting considerable of the state representatives from the Democrats and will be on a joint vote of the legislature to elect the other state officers not chosen by popular vote.

Carl E. Milliken led his ticket, defeating Governor Oakley C. Curtis, who sought re-election, by a plurality of approximately 13,000.

The Republican drift extended to county officers, the greater number of counties choosing Republican county attorneys and sheriffs. These officers are important locally because the holders are charged with enforcing the prohibition law.

The vote was heavy, as had been expected, for the campaign had been waged with a determination not seen in recent years. The country was searched out for speakers of national prominence and the greater number of these battled on national issues. The fight was particularly hot for the two United States senators and the four places held by Maine in the lower house at Washington. National defense, the tariff and the eight-hour law for railroad men loomed large in the speeches.

Hale Sends Telegram.
United States Senator-elect Frederick Hale tonight sent a telegram to Charles E. Hughes, who had shared in the campaign, claiming that the vote was an endorsement of Hughes' candidacy for the presidency.

Governor Curtis issued a statement asserting that anything less than a plurality of 15,000 would indicate that the people of Maine wished to uphold the president.

The closest fight was of congress from the second district, whose representative Daniel J. McGillicuddy, was defeated by Wallace H. White, Jr., by 500 plurality.

Best of all the state of Maine has repudiated Senator Charles F. Johnson, a member of the finance committee of the senate, which framed the present Democratic tariff bill.

The result shows, the sentiment of the state of Maine on the tariff law and the other acts of the Democratic administration.

CHAIRMAN WOODS HIGHLY ELATED OVER VICTORY
Washington, Sept. 11.—Representative Frank P. Woods of Iowa, chairman of the national Republican congressional committee, made this statement tonight:

"The Maine election indicates what we may expect in November—a Republican victory. Even this early a conservative report from all over the United States assures us that Hughes will be elected by a large majority in the electoral college."

"The contest will be over the house and senate. Our committee is going into every part of the country with the same methodical effort and energy that we put forth in Maine."

Representative Henry T. Helgesen, Republican of North Dakota said:
"The Maine election is a barometer of the national situation. It is evident to all right-thinking Americans that the Democratic tariff, as well as other Democratic measures for the industrial defense of the nation, is not the kind that is going to bring prosperity to the United States and I believe it is that idea that has affected the election in Maine and I am sure it will affect elections elsewhere, and especially in the north-west."

Representative James R. Mann, Republican leader in the house, said:
"Well, the Maine result is no surprise to me. There will be a clean sweep for Hughes all over the north and in some of the southern states. It is the sense of the country that Hughes shall be elected. The people believe it to be essential."
